I run a web site development company that uses a variety of products and services. I am appalled at the fact that AOL is suing Microsoft and preventing innovation. I can not tell you how many countless hours I have spent talking with my clients about the problems and issues that AOL delivers. Microsoft on the other hand seems to deliver products and services that help me and my company out at every turn. I wonder though how well Microsoft will be able to continue to do this with companies like AOL/Time Warner suing them at every turn only because they produce inferior products to that of Microsoft. As a tax payer and an avid voter I demand that Microsoft be left alone so they can continue to provide products and services that help the small business owner like myself. Thank you for listening.

Thanks,
